

Who is Ejder Ormancı, Ph.D.?

Graduated from Boğaziçi University, Department of Political Science and International Relations, completed his master's degrees in international business at Marmara University and Business Administration at Istanbul Ticaret University. Has a Ph.D. degree in the field of Business Administration at Yıldız Technical University.

He started his career in 1990 and worked in various companies such as Customer Representative, Key Account Manager, Sales and Marketing Director. Since 2002, he has served as Deputy Managing Director, Founding General Manager and Member of the Board of Directors in technology, payment systems, e-commerce, corporate services sectors. In the consultancy company he founded in 2008, he provided consultancy to the leading companies of Türkiye in areas such as Strategic Management and Planning, Business Development, Corporate Communication, Marketing and Sales, Public Relations, International Relations, Change Management. In this period, in the Public Transport Sector both in the private and government companies like E-Kent, Kayseri Transportation and IETT, he had worked as Chief Advisor to the General Manager, Advisor to the Chairman of the Board of Directors, and Change Consultant for the Executive Board of Directors. He worked as the Founding Director of Donation Management Department in Turkish Red Crescent.

He is still Founder and one of the Change Management Leaders of DNO Change Training Communication Management Consultancy Services. He is Senior Advisor of GMO Management Consultancy established in United Kingdom and working as Strategy and Business Development Consultant in Kingdom of Saudi Arabia of Parabol Company for MENA Region. He has been a Ph.D. Lecturer in Yıldız Technical University one semester in 2022, giving two lectures, namely Event Management & Organisational Behaviours.

He started to live in Jeddah, KSA from March 2023.

He is married and has three daughters.